Democrat: It may be that the people of Colorado and Nevada do not care what other folks think of them, and will not allow such men'as Senator Fair and ex-somewhat clumsy performance.

Leayenworth Times: Dodge City and

Ford county are acquiring a very unenviable name by the present municipal trouble. It has been telegraphed from one end of the country to the other, and

Democrats A correspondent of the Cin-

turning out Republicons and in Demo-

The New York Tribune is endeavor.

ing to ascertain how the people of the metropolis spend Susday. There are

36; Lutheran, 19; Dutch Reformed, 16;

Unitarian, 3; Jewish, 19; miscellaneous,

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: The Kansouthwest corner close to the wall.

Proceedings have been commenced in specified charges cover the offenses

in addition declare that Dukes is grossly in good moral character, honesty, dis-

ESTABLISHED IN 1857.

Henry King in the St. Louis Globe EDITORIAL NEWS NOTES.

A vast amount of pen-and-ink patriotism is stready in process of incubation for the approaching Fourth of July. A Cincinnati paper notes with swelling pride that two of the five men dices of narrow-minded people; but we hanged in this country last Friday were still cing to the ancient idea that, other from Ohio. The recent convictions under the prohibitory law at Lawrence seem to have stimulated fresh interest in the water works project at that place.

Wichita was also shaken up a little on Sunday. That town seems to have a mortal aversion to being left out in the cold even when it comes to cyclones. The fact that feet-washing is one of the two states mentioned who are not the sacraments of the Dunkard church under a constant liability of this kind. will readily explain the extreme pauci- As Colorado lies just east of Utah and ty of Democrats in that denomination.

Nevads just west of it, the influence of now play a lone hand.

World by Mr. Pulitzer, now play a lone hand. Timber covers about two-thirds of North Carolina; Mississippi has some twenty million acres of it; Louisiana, fifteen millions; Texas a great amount.

Mormon practices without the Mormon pra The disastrous effects of the Kansas two states adds emphasis to the sneers the United States government City cyclone continue to multiply. The which the Mormons cast on the preten-Journal of that city is now engaged in a stons to national virtue by which Delescientific disquisition upon the storm of gate Canon was driven from the house of one who has stuck to it long enough-Sunday. Mormon legislation by the senate a Georgia expects to raise over a million dollars' worth of watermelons this season. This ann uncement is sufficient to make the mouth of the average African citizen flow like the antediluvian del-The rational reconciliation of the alarming multiplication of cyclones editorially commented upon within the with the rapid decadence of the Greenback-labor party is -the problem that is streaking with silver threads the hirsute of Kansas scientists. Philadelphia Press: Talmage thinks is. This is all wrong. Courts of justice

it a pity that Tilden should be talked of should be strong enough to protect the for the presidency, with both feet in the people, without a resort to mob law and both his hands on his pocket-book. The Washington monument is now raged at Dodge City, the courts of Ford State University.

pole that will knock the persimmons. | mitted it. That is where the matter tion of Milt Reynolds. Mrs. Stowe's original Uncle Tom died will have to end. The sooner both again last week-this time at Dresden, sides learn this and drop their fight, tis in connection with his address to Ontario. If the migratory tendencies of and let the law take its course, the bet- the editorial association at Winfield. the old coon could only be conquered, ter it will be for Dodge City, for Ford We believe if we were the Gazette man and he could be induced to settle down, county, and for Kansas.

what a bonanza he would prove to some lucky undertaker. The Social Science club of Kansas has $1 500 worth of "doz" on a $500 salary.

perance throughout the state will be an interview, just, as he is careful to The prohibitionists should thank God rity he remarked, "I thought when the of conquest to invade.

stay. The fact that a few relics of the ed to such nousense." There is no happy band now rise up and announce shadow of doubt but Mr. Voorhees tells ease centering in his jaw. that they will take control of the coun- the truth in this instance—the only civil try, not in 1884, but in 1888, is to some a rvice the genuine Democrat favors is extent paralyzing.

The doubting Thomas of the Philadelphia Times questions whether Sitting Bull's professed Christianity is "all wool and a yard wide." We incline to the belief that it is a pretty average article. The newly converted chief is not sufficiently civilized to make a thorough-

There was a very severe frost through out northern Ohio on Thursday night. We were fearful that early vegetation in that state would suffer from a polar wave when we ascertained that twentyher leading citizens being "mentioned" as a candidate for governor next fall.

The Kansas editors have accepted the invitation of the Denver and Rio Grande along the line of the excursion we had the pleasure resorts near the city every good judgment of the Press, to us it A talented divine of Chicago ad- people imagine.

vances the ingenious theory that the wicked will be employed in the next curate it is quite logical to predict that it destroyed every building in the path, Sol Miller, of the Troy Chief, will in whether of wood or stone or brick; the the great hereafter, be the wretched out. funnel shaped cloud hopped up and lisher of a paper with patent "innards." zigzagged, and ruined here and spared other state officers who returned yester. no one can account for, or forget after day from Emporia were very well pleas. once observing it; and the path of oned, indeed, with their trip. The Nor | ward progress was comparatively narmal school is reported to be in excellent | row. Science is buffled; it can not fight condition in every respect. The president, Prof. Taylor, is doing efficient tent within its graso, but to mitigate work and is attending strictly to busi. damage is beyond its reach. It is not ness, and not meddling with outside so easy in the city as in the country to so chagrined over their defeat at Emporia that none of them thought to send a dispatch announcing the result of the to see that a special was sent the Champion. Their chagrin, and the stupid neglect of the press agent at that place, result of the competitive drill.

discover that the Ft. Scott Monitor which has been vigorously fighting immoral and depraved, unfaithful, ungraveyard insurance companies, con- truthful, unscrupulous, vile, cruel, tained in a recent issue, a full page adheartless and shameless; and, finally, vertisement of a "Mutual Aid" concern. that "he has proved himself so lacking

The oldest colored man in Ohio, and | the practice of the law at this bar." The perhaps in the world, died at Center- testimony will be taken next week, and wille a day or two ago. He was 125 the case will receive another overhaulyears of age, and yet made no claims to ing. being Washington's body servant or an V." The tailure to erect a menument ers is made by some of the Democratic of prophecy."

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL A man named Labor in North Carolina has twenty children. His home is a laboratory. Death and the lawyers proved too

Senator Tabor to suffer from the prejumuch for Justice in the case of Kring, the St. Louis murderer. "Jim Fisk," the London Spectator things being equal, it is better for the whole country to select men for senators says, is "the only perfectly vulgar man who are not pretty sure to distinguish of genius" it can recall. their term of office by getting the worst and of a divorce suit before it is establishment, but it will not be half over. It comports better with the charge of Preacher Harris. old-fashioned idea of senatorial dignity Burlington Hawkeye: Puck calls Lybly it is difficult to find any able men in Belvidere?

> The free traders have lost a strong ad-World by Mr. Pulitzer. Waterson will representatives, and, in fact, makes anti. make the New York World pay. -The appendement that Mr. Langtry is coming to America justifies the pain about it. ful presumption that that gentleman is collecting material for a divorce suit. The Lawrence Journal, which seems to realize that discretion is the better part of valor, speaks of Sol Miller's

"absurdities" instead of calling him a

The Chanute Chronicle nominates P. many different lights. The trouble now I. Bonebrake for governor in 1884. We has become so complicated that it is were not aware before that the Chronicle doubtful if any one knows just what it made any pretensions to being a humorous publication.

It requires very little discrimination grave; but in justice to the Democratic violence. Kansas courts are strong on the question of size to determine party it must be remembered that he has enough to assert their authority. If the that Congressman Haskell is a bigger public policy and feeling has been out. man than Professor Canfield, of the taller than any of the pyramids except. county are strong enough to settle it. John Quincy Adams Jeffers, proprieing two. A year hence the youngest can If any wrong has been committed, the tor of the Hiawatha hotel enjoys the return ber compliments to the oldest courts of Ford county are amply ably to distinction of being the handsomest nation in the world. She will have the handle it, and to punish whoever com. man in Kansas, with the possible excep-

The St. Joe Gazette has tackied Pren-

The Tall Sycamore of the Wabash is over in Kentucky trying to convince a is claimed that the Major enjoys a great-settled in a few days. been in session at Wyandott-during the same and should be allowed to shoot or familiarity with cyclones than any the law. 'But he finds time to talk polt-cionati Enquirer has been favored with that occasion. public drinking fountain in front of one | hees declared himself willing to stand sit down and blubber, like Alexander of the leading drug stores of Topeka. by his civil-service record. With alac- of old, because there are no new fields bill was passed it was a fraud, and the from for so long it was supposed they clusively that I am right. The Demo- severe attack of rheumatism. We tremcontemplate the possibility of the dis

Protestant Episcopal, 79; Presbyterian, ly suspected that there was some collu-Congregational, 6; Universalists, 5; John Snerman positively declines t is the Episcopalian, which numbers 25,- publicans at the fall election. The

000, and the Presbyterian is next with sage of Mansfield evidently proceeds 18.000. The total membership of upon the thrifty hypothesis that a senachurches is 600,000, of which the Prot torship in the hand is worth several estant denominations have 100,000. gubernatorial terms in the bush There 305 Sunday schools, with a total scholarship of 119,014. The average S. S. Benedict would be an excellent fore they return home. From all advices attendance at the churches is about 450-, man to succeed Senstor Ingalls. Withreceived from the victualing stations 000, and between 75,000 and 100,000 visit out desiring to call into question the

doing ever since they started out a week | ing makes it appear that New York, re- senior senator will not change hundsligiously speaking, is not as bad as most or rather feet -in 1885. which, it will be remembered, attended > credit the accuracy of that rumor. Jos Pulitzer, the new edit ir and protrade. It will now be in order for Professor Canfield to take steps to prohibit escape to one side from the storm's track. Experience has shown, however, it not absolute safety. Get into the permit him to stand three fifths behind unjust, and controlled by the comman-

wheat speculator, is supposed to be mandery scored ninety-seven points to verest and most sweeping character. The in a tight place financially. He accumu- eighty-seven for Columbus, and only lat's a great fortune in California a few made three errors, whereas Columbus years ago, and thought it would be a made eleven, but the judges decided pears that he has been "skun." Henri Watterson, of the Louisville | the drill were surprised at the result.

Courier-Journal, predicts that the Democratic party will be snowed under in 1884. Now if he will only assure us Ft Yates with his band, has expressed that the Fourth of July will be on deck his desire to be an honest old agricultu and the laws of this Commonwealth for allegitimate son of an eminent "F. F. A demand for new men and new lead- lief that Henri is endowed with the gift white interviewer with race responsibility children of men might become lamps in Milliken 3,200 miles.

the streate stored electric light is carried and the streat electric light is carried as the streat electric light is carried as the streat electric light is carried as the streated electric light is streated end of the streated electric light is carried as the construction of a cable tramway up the wind of for us to decide whether our sun shall set in glory or go down to clouds as the manning of the streated in the countric light is carried in a proposed that the summit; 144,000 the streated in the countric light is at a manifold the light in the summit of the large of the streated in the countric light is streated in the countric light is streated in the countric light is streated on the light of using the wind of the streated in the countric light is at manifold in the carried in the countric light is at a manifold in the streated on the light is streated in the countric light is carried as the countric light in the countric light is an interest the height and with the countric light in the countric light is an interest the countric light in the countric light

THE CLASS OF '83.

THE DODGE CITY MUDDLE. Commonwealth: Luke Sharp and Bar Masterson are still in town, staying quictly at their botel and awaiting the progress of of events. Short is desirous of having Governor Glick give him an escort to Dodge in the shape of a compa ny of militia, and having received the promise of his protection, has been waiting for something to turn up. He says he dare not go there slone and open-Kingman is soon to have a banking ly, trusting to promises the governor has

Twelve citizens of Dodge City, Messrs Harry Storm, Capt. Deust, L. W. Jones and relieves Washington society from an dis Pinkham the "Venus de Medicine." Col. R. J. Hardesty, P. D. Reynolds, Geo. extra load of miscellaneousness. Possi- Then is Oscar Wilde the Appalling de Emmerson, member of the council, S. A. Bullard, Rev. N. G. Collins, T. L. McCarty, F. J. Durand, R. E. Rice and vocate in the purchase of the New York S. Mullendore, arrived yesterday afternoon and were in consultation with the governor for about two hours. They preserve the peace, and that until he class of '83. Every seat in the house after the heat and turmoil of the day, experiment which has "busted" every both sides, was an outsider so far as the > mittee, a reporter said he had been informed that Sheriff Hinkle was disposed to preserve the peace, and asked whether he would protect Short. "No," said the committeeman, "Short has been ordered out of town by the cit-

"What are the charges against him?" asked the reporter. "Disobeying the ordinances." "Why don't you try him in the courts there and punish him ?" "Well, he is a bad man generally.

was ordered out of town a year ago, and allowed to return on promise of good behavior. But he is a bad man to have "What will be done if he attempts to

"He will be ordered to go'on. If he doer all will be well. If he resists the ordes rouble But I guess all will be peacea-Short said last night that he should go back; just when he didn't know, nor we would let that job out.

Major Inman is preparing, it is said, to clucidate the Kansas City tornado It is claimed that the Major enjoys a greatise of the members of the gratuating class, the find to get there. Illinois, and Humboldt, Kansas, where teachers of the gratuating class, the limits in this intention, and carries it out there may be trouble yet, but the members of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the members of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the members of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the members of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the members of the members of the members of the faculty bearing the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of the carried off the honors in all his class-teachers of Senator John A. Logan has been in | ed men for next September, at Washtics; it is safe to say when Voorhees gets vited to elevate the eagle at Wichita on ington, indicates the growing disconso he can't talk politics he will be ripe the Fourth, and the well-known antifor translation to the home of all good prohibition views of that gentleman jus. sessing all the rights of citizenship, but tify the hope that he will be present on with an insecure present and an alarmnegro laborer in the south is not only | Milliken. greatly encouraged to know that the mention, as the senator was leaving the all the graveyard insurance companies not remunerated, but that the laws af-Commonwealth urges the erection of a hands of a "tonsorial artist." Mr. Voor- cleaned out Col. Dan. R. Anthony will ford no protection in the collection of this young orator was delivered in a It is announced that Representative cal rights are ignored and that he re- speaker said: "To me has been assigned had folded their tents and gone off to crats in Indiana are unanimously oppos- ble for the liberties of Kansas when we bases of representation in the conven-Roscoe Conkling, in a recent speech, cry state with less than 10,000 negroes, trust that the hours spent with us may said that the Democrats are about to and one for every other state. The three hundred delegates will be able to shall tell you of true genius in man—the class, and the only one who has comtone of this splenetic observation would discriminate between the incidental seem to indicate that the wish with him was father to the thought and true which makes but the beautiful and true which makes but the crowning act of the 41; Methodist Episcopal, 60; Baptist, sion between this percunial evangelist be reached by a single bound and that and the late cyclone which devastated positions must not be claimed on the program which he so happily opened, be equal to those of the whites.

The Kansas City Journal gives an ac count of a curious crank named Ferguson, "a tall, dark man, with a straggling porta had their legs pulled, the Columprize, although Atchison was awarded southern ex-member of congress. The All those who attended the tournament der of the Wichit i squad, which was de-

Chief Sitting Bull, having arrived at replete with gems of thought most beau- marred by the knowledge of future sor-

Commencement Exercises of the Emporia High School. Essays of the Graduates-Class History

by Miss Ollie Price Class Prophecy by Miss Kate Hurst. Words of Adieu as Spoken by Miss Fannie Randolph-Presentation of Diplomas by Judge Kellegg. alumni Exercises - Address by Rev Henry Mackay-Social, Congratulations, Etc.

The deep interest which the citizens of row is concerned and didn't know much tions. To say that the exercises throughmost auspicious in the educational annais of our beautiful city. The initial performance on the program was an effective overture by the orchestra and during its performance plate, and the memory of which will relation to the class of '83: He not soon fade from the minds of the beholders. The stage was very handsomely mounted for the occasion, and its apthe footlights. Over the stage was sus as the years glided on, one by one pended the class motto: .

THUS ENDETH THE FIRST LESSON. green letters on a white background and foremost, he brought us dignity; cheeks. I scarcely breathed lest the es to weave her web in the letters on a white background and foremost, he brought us dignity; cheeks. I scarcely breathed lest the es to weave her web in the letters on a white background secondly, wisdom; and thirdly, height face should vanish, but I quickly trans yet she is stout and strong. What more fully fixed the attention of the audience, however, were the perhave to go under cover, and can't tell sons occupying the stage, including the of the State Normal. Upon the conclusion of the overture Rev. Henry Mac. the youngest graduate from the Emporia But suddenly this visage stood aside, invocation, after which Superintendent Carmichael announced as the first per-ing future. The address arges that the an oration on Mexico, by Arthur The address of greeting share of public school advantages; that tion for this duty on behalf of the class he does not fully enjoy the provisions was attended with the most happy reof the civil rights bill; that his politi. sults. In beginning his salutatory the we feel that we are surrounded by tion is one delegate to every 25,000 col. friends who have watched and encourored population; three delegates for ev. aged us through our years of study; I Her peaceful and contented disposition ii-haess and oppression, and will boldly man the crowning act of the creator." sole score of race, but upon the tair after which he proceeded to the delivery ground of competency. The convention of a most entertaining and instructive sustained by entire Republicanism) that | which the early traditions of the land of | friends think she can never forgive is inhis political, civil and executive rights, the Montezumas were reviewed; its dolence. She has always attended school and his legal and school privileges shall growth and progress under the leadership of patriotic minds set forth; its up into her present position. Having quently elaborated. The grand future of our sister republic, which is just sought for diploms.

It was the determination vocation. Three months before Garfield | norance and superstition, is awaking to asked for money to go to Washington urged with an intelligence that indicated to Kansas newspapers that Mr. Ingalls and give warning. He has since agsert the entire familiarity of the speaker She seemed to inspire us with new life went to Washington for a purpose. In ed himself to be a prophet and brother with the subject. The excellence of the the light of the striking analogy between of Christ. An intervenent member of the subject matter of the oration was emwas the subject of a beautiful and public notice that that sheet will no long- ten days. The prophecy relating to the thoughtful essay by Jessie May Green, president naturally drew attention to of which the following is the central idea: Everything seeks light and is drawn toward it. Beacon lights are sig-Atchison Globe: The Atchison nals erected as marks to give notice of Knights of Pythius who went to Em- danger, to guide the mariner to the haven and to spread the news of great for the story that during the latter part bus Commandery receiving the first events. The beacon lights of the Ro- her ankle a few weeks ago which we lenged to fight a duel by a fire-eating $75 in cash for the best street display. empire established or fallen; of life or death, of peace or war. The news of former, it is added, very properly de-clined, because his antagonist refused to their feet cold, for it was undoubtedly light which spread from village to village until the top-most hills of Virgina stored to perfect health. feated last year. The Atchison Com- age which could not be caught by the distant ear. To us, to-night, beacon lights mean any event in history of the past us in life. The schools are the great fine thing to come east and skin the sim- against Atchison because of a trivial beacon lights of the civilization of es if convenient, and as nothing remarkple speculators of Wall street and the difference in the tactics, and because to-day; good books are the beacon lights Chicago Board of Trade. It now ap Atchison has had the prize two years in of the nation, and Christ is the great succession. All those who witnessed Beacon Light of the world. The essayist then reviewed the shining beacon lights of history including Bunyan, Car which "shined in the darkness," and in proportion.

Carrie Frost, Arthur Milliken and this year as usual, and that the law of ralist, and to raise his food out of the which illuminates the world with the periodicity which has marked the re- ground instead of pursuing it on the effulgence of righteousness and peace. course. currence of Christmas for the past 1800 boof. The recent report that he was years will not fail us next December, we shall be disposed to yield to the beyears will not fail us next December, about to join the church derives probatues which adorned the life of the Light we shall be disposed to yield to the be. bility from the fact that he taunted a of the World, and showed how the ity for the crucifixion. "You did not even respect your president," he then ad-

Josh Billings is the best paid literary man in the wrold, possibly with the exception of Tennyson. He recently received $400 for 12 words. They were for an advertisement for a dry goods house. Many of his best things are disposed of in this way. As he was an auctioneer and without a dollar till was wanted it has had to be satisfied. auctioneer and without a doilar till nearly three score years old, he is not above pedding out his work at the best nearly for its good. The permits of the party for its good. The permits of the internal and the proposed of the prop CINCINNATI, May 16 .- A Times-Star The reader then made an ingenious mor-tifully expressed, and did great credit to the writer.

The present is indeed beautiful, and is offering to us its perpetual hymn; why not accept it? For in proportion "Ilka Blade of Grass Keeps Its Ala

EMPORIA, KANSAS, THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1883.

Drap o' Dew," was the subject of an admirable ment of which was foreshadowed by the ciate the future, and poetic theme chosen by the writer. The leading thought of the production was the value of the common blessings of life, which are bestowed by the Great Giver upon men in all conditions of hu-Giver upon men in all conditions of hu-manity, and the idea that there can be in store for us. Could we have the faith and successfully elaborated in it is necessary that one from each class language that proved a fit-The deep interest which the citizens of the line work of our public which it conveyed. The inherent reEmporis feel in the work of our public which it conveyed. The inherent reIt was in the year of '90, I sat alone schools was most abundantly indicated sources for happiness which every man Joe Pulitzer has yentured upon an eaked for aid, he should not interfere.

Col. Hardesty said that Dodge City was no more excited than Topeka; that the program, and many were obliged to make the New York World pay.

Col. Hardesty said that Dodge City was occupied long before the opening of the reverse upon which I had was no more excited than Topeka; that the program, and many were obliged to with a brighter verdure, and the trouble exists chiefly in the newspances of the trouble exists chiefly in the newspances of sult of the failure; not a ray of light hoth sides was an outsider so far as the long that until ne asked for aid, he should not interfere.

Col. Hardesty said that Dodge City was occupied long before the opening of the revive the tender blade and paint it with a brighter verdure, and the recent and tallion of the least and consolation and healing are not availaout more than realized the best expectable it we will only seek them out, and Meeting another member of the comMeeting another member of the comMeetin voice the verdict of all who were present ful influences which surround us. The upon this happy occasion—one of the essay was replete with beautiful ideas, I drew aside the heavy curtains, and or later be unfolded for the Master's inand the distinct and pleasing manner of gazed out upon the night. The lonely its delivery left nothing to be desired on pedestrians moved hastily along. Each al, no good act so small but that will give the part of the audience. Class Bistory.

Upon the conclusion of her beautiful the curtain arose, revealing a picture essay, Miss Price proceeded to thus set shining angel stepped forth. She laid in the texture which we are weaving which it was indeed pleasing to contem- forth the following interesting points in her hand soothingly upon my bead and in which life was seen under the semblance of a bridge, crowded at first, but appear twenty years from now. To you one by one dropping into the river of will I give the knowledge of their fuclass at the beginning of the present eyes, and shaded somewhat the half-school year. He was a valuable acqui-blossomed roses that seemed on the sition, and to him we owe much First Frank was born fifteen years ago in St. ferred to my canvass this vision of love-Louis, Missouri. He has attended liness, my classmate, Anna Atyeo, the school at St. Louis, Wyman Institute, most noted actress in the world, playing

We might fill a volume and then not diately recognized the face of our class-halt would be told of the wonderful ex-mate, Carrie Frost. Firmness and courploits, feats and achievements of Arthur Milliken. He has attended school in Emformance on the program the salutatory, Mrs. D. Jackson, whom he tortured by in Europe, and now that it had passe constantly asking questions and en- she was resting upon the laureis won logical. His penchant for argu- by filling the papers with articles upon and she cries: ment and investigation he has cul- the hated sex. I placed her face upon of entry wait. It tivated during his entire course in the his dues; that the negro has not a fair highly pleasing manner, and his selecting school. Arthur has advanced join her companion. steadily in learning, and we take great pleasure and pride in introducing to your notice our rhetorician, metaphysician, mathematician and logician.

Among the young ladies of the class The Greenbackers have not been heard present state of affairs shows pretty con- Burton, of Abilene, is suffering from a ceives not his proportion of executive the privilege of extending to you a wel- first on the alphabettended exholl nine most shape the proper place. protection and encouragement. The come. In appearing before you to-night, Atyco, who has attended school nine ment she now holds her proper place, years, obtaining her entire education in the greatest power in the world. That Emporia, except a short term in Jack-sonville, Illinois, where she was born. When the czar would ask permission to heart to fail thee; for soon thy work will has always made her a great favorite. Carrie Frost is remarkable for being talk but six hours per day. This did gazed long and carnestly at the figure Harrison, the boy preacher, has made say, we trust, that education, self-reliance Then by way of felicitous allusions to not last long, for soon neither for love and recognized the intellectual face of 504 churches in that city of the following over eighty converts at Kansas City and experience in self-support can alone the subjects treated upon by the nor money would she sell her woman's our classmate, Fannie Randolph. Certree the southern negro from imposition; several members of the class in will be left y say that high points cannot be reached by a single bound and that the cannot be reached by a sin tered our class in 1880, and has ever since been a faithful and conscientious The question, What will be Fan's vocation in life? is one over which I had well known that Miss Randolph is a Jessie Green has been our most induswill demand (and this demand will be oration on the subject of Mexico, in trious member, and the only fault her who knew the girl in her youth, will be n Emporia, beginning in the lowest Jacobs Oil."

ated, and its splendid possibities elo- cation by careful and diligent study she like an angle of mercy, or rather like a will receive her reward when to-night true woman, "not too great and good she steps forward and receives he long for human nature's daily food, which, freed from the thralldom of ig. Hurst never to attend school, for she smile and kind words helps to assuage supposed that that's what they had been doing ever since they started out a week to make it appear that New York repolice in Kansas Cuy and revealed a claims to the co-operation and encourplot to assessingle the president. He agement of our government forcibly and succeeded in having a good time,

Kate was always a general favorite time has been spent in studying, so her Owen hastily appeared, a bundle of pastaff of a newspaper office which Fer. phasized by the easy and natural mangrowth was necessarily neglected; but pers under one arm. Every feature spoke from this on she will pay particular atbusiness. This gentleman was an editstaff of a newspaper office which Ferguson intested begged him "to bring his brother fount," whereupon Ferguson which could not have been improved by the easy and natural manural man mary. The only misfortune that ever stepped aside.

overtook Fanny was that of spraining Next was Jessie Green Elliott. What tending the exercises this evening. Ever the accident that prematurely many days may pass before she is re-Ollie Price was born in central Ohio found her way to Kansas, where she has resided ever since. Her life has been calm and secluded, enjoyable and happy It was her rule never to be below 70 in pass on to class statistics.

We are right with the motto:

to our improvement of the present world, will be our capacity for happi ness in the world which is to come by Miss Ollie Price, the graceful treat- Accept the present with cheerful hearts

"The world that lies around us like a cloud— A world we do not see— Yet the sweet closing of an eye, May bring us there to be." Still, this desire is natuarl. Each one which graduates must lift the veil, peer in despair and misery. For seven years useful employment of the had I worked day after day, and night which they are endowed. but now my towering aspirations had fallen, a mass of gilded ruins at my gloom and darkness of the future.

Exhausted I sank upon my couch; sud- ing the great fabric which will, sooner denly a bright light shone around me. step brought them nearer to home and color to the webb and assist in outlining sound of approaching wheels, and a its pattern. Lines of gold and tarnished a quiet fireside. I was startled by the moment later, a glass carriage, brilliant threads will appear in the woof, and In looking over the past events of my take this brush which I will give you, class I could but think of the allegory and paint upon you canvass the face of and beautify the pat ern, by embracing each of your class mates, as they shall every present opportunity for the accom-

man I had ever beheld; her large, liquid

For the past year she had been laboring in Europe, and now that it had passed the canvass and she stepped aside to Milliken, in his royal robe, a perfect picture of satisfaction, and well might the czar's court. No longer was Russia palace. Stroke after stroke and the hap py countenance was before me, but the Slowly advanced a pilgrim, aged and Lord."

life to such a public benefactor as "St gives the cup of cold water, aids the thoughts intruded upon, its motives rudely proved or its moods sharply ques is that she is a thorough Kansan, and onds more and the machine would carry being such can claim the highly respect him back to his office. The wonderful a face. It was not the mere outward mans spread the intelligence of feared at one time might prevent her at blending of evenly shaped fea- that can be conceived of are exactly blending of evenly shaped fea-tures, that so attracted my attention, but the true womanhood that shone through since the accident that prematurely the true womanhood that shone through closed her school days she has had the the veil. She had suffered much and guages, had learned to understand and life, too, how varied.

be understood by all." Desertion and What a gloomy able can be found in her history we will of age she gave her young heart to one variety we see in and about us, is origiwho seemingly returned her affections, but he the deceiver, proved unfaithful, ends our first lesson."

The average age of class, 17 years 7 five years of wedded life he demonths; weight, 123 pounds 3 ounces; serted her. The sad eyes were a tender without the sentiment expressed in lights of history including Bunyan, Car lyste and others, and concluded by directing the eyes of all to that Beacon Light which "shined in the darkness," and which "shined in the darkness," and in proportion.

| A position of the sentiment expressed in the sentime Frank Owen have taken the classical my imagination, or did they as they course. Only two of our membes were gently glided from my sight, turn upon The latter has walked over 5,000 miles last face had appeared and silently that each one of us is a thought of God, passed away. I gaged around me. Antiover the grave of this moral hero will indicate that modesty and truthfulness are regarded as crimes rather than virtues in the Buckeye state.

The failure to erect a minument organs. They profess to have grown it a minument of the old set that has directed the are regarded as crimes rather than virtues in the Buckeye state.

The failure to erect a minument organs. They profess to have grown it and of the old set that has directed the councils of the party and stood around by those actuated by off-stage hate. A was then read by Miss Randelph in that respect me and my rights." In spite of his bitterness, the great Teton chief fore, hence past events must leave their shadows before me stood the angel, who, gazing on the offices for the past twenther than virtues in the Buckeye state.

The demand is natural organs. They profess to have grown it and reflecting those beatitudes which were exemplified in Christ, the only absent when she had the mumps. Coming events cast their shadows before me. Wearily I arose, except which characters are the ded, "so that I could not expect you to be done the councils of the party and stood around by those actuated by off-stage hate. A writer instances a case where she who the delivery of her essay, and was seems disposed to live peacefully combined with an essay on "Sunset," and duty to collect, combine and blend my rights. The class of '83 extends to you its the shedows cast by my classmates in the late of the old set that I could not expect you to ded, "so that I could not expect you to ded, "so that I could not expect you to be done the cards them and it intends the mumps. Coming events cast their shadows before me. Wearily 1 arose, except the councils of the party and the ded, "so that I could not expect you to be done the cards them and it intends are the councils of the party and the delivery of her essay, and was followed with an essay on "Sunset," It has been and been the councils of the party and the councils of the party and the councils of the party and the councils of t The entire number of years we have attended school is seventy-two.

Jessie Green has never been tardy and canvas before me. Wearily I arose, exbuther, our own idol zed Garfield and hero, however, is he who eternal well-being.

Chassmates, from little children in pinbut that they cheer and help the lowly water, would be a message sent to guide us on our way. But since this eagerraged in New York when President into the future, beholding the lives of Lincoln was assassinated. All men canting garb for the grand thoughts each unroll as a scroll, and read. To me not achieve greatness, but all may make again be boys and girls at school which it conveyed. The inherent reuseful employment of the faculties with "Spinning" was the theme selected by Miss Carrie taste displayed by the author in its treat- go west." We are already there bring > queen city of the prairies, and our city schools her pride, her joy, the brightest of her jewels. Presentation of Diploma said, "Be happy, your troubles are over; Let us exercise care in sel-cting threads senting the members of the class with which will impart strength to the fabric | their diplomas. The Alumni Exercises behavior. But he is a bad man to have strong, and we don't want him there, and won't have him. Our proceedings may not be just exactly according to law, but its a custom, and he can't relaw, but its a custom, and he can't relaw to the control of a bridge, crowded at hrst, but appear twenty years from now. It years from now its years f is young and faith is strong, then delivered by Rev. Henry Mackay, dropped out until we could say, "We eyes seemed to penetrate my very soul; while the eye is bright and the haud is upon the benefits to society of popular roseste vistas before us. A young girl education, at the conclusion of which a point of opening wide and bright in her stands in the doorway of life and resolv- social was held and the graduates were cheeks. I scarcely breathed lest the es to weave her web in the morn, while warmly congratulated by their friends. I will weave it fine, I will weave it fair; tadeless and strong will I wrave my well That perhaps it will live after I am dead

But maidenhood passes, and she weaves not Love tangles the threads of her fabric, and she determines to do her work at noontide.

But the creeping shadows grow longer and longer, and when she turns to her loom at set of sun, she finds that her hand is tired and her heart is weak; ear heart! will she wenve her beautiful web In the golden light of a longer day?" The story of the maiden is that of have added to the fair fame of Enporia among the cities of Kansas, and which squandered opportunities. Then be not received more consideration than our will say: "Well done good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy "Be Thyself," expression and thought characteristic of restore harmony among the hair-pulling well known that Miss Randolph is a this connection ex-Congressman Hewitt secoming style, the case of manner and labor for several years past, and thinks eloquence of expression which charac- there are more and meaner factions than terized its delivery being almost fault- ever. He heartily commends Mr. Pulit-

The following is a brief outline of the essay, which is worthy of reproduction here in full had we space for it: We live in a universe abounding in per work twenty years ago, and besides variety; the planetary systems differ owning the St. Louis Post Dispatch is one from the other in shape, size and world. function; clouds are never alike; pile on pile they lie, with rosy topped moun-across the blue meadows of the sky, or tie like golden islands in a silvery sea." pepsia or liver complaint. It will produce a natural appetite and does not become neutralized to the system. If you This figure stood saide, and Frank lie like golden islands in a silvery sea." pounds.

Of Fanny Randolph much could be said, but in the short space allowed me only a few prominent points will be spoker of. The most important of these spoker of. The most important of these spoker of the south pole. A few section and the south pole. A few section industriously to the sea. Take a glance at the storehouse of nature: there we les prairie, clad in flowered beauty, and studded with placid lakes with here and cents. For sale by Dr. J. A. Moore. ed name of "Jayhawker" Fanny has been a regular member of our class ever entire world. No household was complete without it. With a hasty jerk he to the naked eye, and the microscope makes it vastly more. Aye, about an ordinary cough or cold, and behold the diversity: no two things the other symptoms of throat and lung affections that lead to this disease. You what a diversity of races there is; what a variety of languages; their habits of life, too, how varied.

What a gloomy monotonous world what a diversity of races there is; what What a gloomy, monotonous world sorrow had been her lot, but not for one this would be did not all this variety exhips and bronichal tubes, removing all the ber eves upon heaven, and with a courist, and the blessing of this difference phlegm and morbid matter that accuher eyes upon heaven, and with a cour-age of which Socrates himself could to mankind is incalculable. Not only have been proud, she implored and re- is this seen in their writings, public adceived peace. And since that dark hour her smile and cheering words had been dresses, etc., but in other methods of exple bottle. Sold by Charles Ryder and the means of bringing hope to many a pressing the sentiments of the mind. nality, and appeals to man and woman: the visions standing there. Was it only because they were themselves; one and the duty of our lives is to wor that thought.

The class of '83 extends to you its grateful appreciation of the liberal mar

ner to which you have ever contribute to the support of our schools. Emporis vate schools, seminaries nor colleges, but all her energies have centered in her public schools, giving to each—the high, the low, the rich, the poor—an equal opportunity to obtain a substannity of the old Norsemen and such his. Sierras of the west-return to you a orical characters as Cromwell, Martin rich, a golden harvest.

Kind tescher, you who have patiently directed our wayward footsteps through others As an apt illustration of three the years of our school lite, how shi ypes of greatness the speaker cited we express to you our appreciation Charles I, who was born great; Richard | your untiring efforts in our behalf? To Cromwell, who had greatness thurst upon him, and Oliver Cromwell, who achieved done for us. We trust you will forgive greatness. In life, continued the orator, and forget our many shortcomings, in the hope that as the years of our life roll and some that are good, but few that are on the truths you have planted, the exboth great and good. The greatest fruit to our honor, and our present and members of this class remain with each link in the chain untarnished and unregret. All partings are sad, but we have brighter prospects than most stu-dents. Instead of being scattered to different parts of the country, in all probability our life work lies here. Our omes, our parents, our friends and our interests are all here. There is no ne cessity for us to be advised "to go wes ing the country up with us. master: Let us all feel that this is our derful wheel of life," was the thought

> Upon the conclusion of the valedictory, Judge L. B. Kellogg, president of the board of education, made a brief address to the graduates, commending the several efforts of the evening, and pre-followed consisting of an appropriate The program was pleasantly interspersed with music by the orchestra and instrumental performances by Emily Moffett and Maud Perley, both of which were finely rendered. The graduating class is composed of Arthur Milliken, E. Frank Owen, Jessie May Green, Annie Atyeo, Olive Price. Fannic Randolph. The manner in which they acquitted themselves last evening gave evidence of the industry which they have employed in the use of the opportunities that are afforded to the the opportunities that are afforded to the seeker for knowledge in our excellent schools, and furnished a gratifying commentary not only upon the diligence, of the class but upon the faithful efforts put forth by the teachers for the accomplishment of the golden results of last evening. Among the many features of enterprise which be ended, and He who inspects thy webb wealth which rejoices in the proud title latest owner of the New York World, are attracting general attention just now. Among other things, he announces in his salutatory that he will undertake to Democracy of New York, and threatens o ignore both the Tilden and Kelly crowd. This is a great task, and the gaze of the country will be fixed onto Mr. Pulitzer for some time to come. In takes occasion to remark that he has been engaged in the same missionary less, and indicating a high order of elo- zer and his enterprise, however. In any event Mr. Pulitzer will put new life into the old World, and will make it a paying enterprise. His past record gives assurance of that. He began newspa-

AROMANNA-Holdstein's Great Dys tain peaks, or "skip like silvery sheep peptic Cure is warranted not only to re necross the blue mendows of the sky, or

> It is said that 50,000 people die anmulates in the throat and lungs. allays all irritation, and renders lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection At times, symptoms of indigestion are present as flatuency, unessiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like per spiration, producing a very disagreesble itching, particularly at night after getting warm in bed, is a very common attendant. Internal, External and Yest which acts directly upon the parts af-fected, absorbing the tumors, allaying manent cure where all other remedies have failed. Do not delay until the have failed. Do not delay until the drain on the system produces permanent disability, but try it and be cured. Price, 50 cents. Ask your druggist for it, and when you cannot obtain it of him, we will send it, prepaid, on receipt of price. Address The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, Ohio. Sold by Chas Ryder and J. A. Moore.

Various Causes-Advancing years, care, sickness, dis-pointment, and hereditary predispopointment, and hereditary predisposi-tion—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed

Absolutely Pure:

VOL. 26---NO. 21.

A DISORDERED LIVER of the present generation. It is for the Cure of this disease and its attendants SICK-HEADACHE, BILIOUSNESS, DYPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, PILES, etc., the TUTT'S PILLS have gained a world-wid reputation. No Remedy has ever bee discovered that acts so gently on the Chills and Fever.

PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY.

Attorneys at Law.

C. B. BACHELLER.

ATTORNEY AT LAW
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, AND NOTARY PUBLIC
OLLECTIONS A SPECIALTY.

Office over First National Bank BUCK & FEIGHAN.

PEYTON, SANDERS & PEYTON, H. LLEWELYN JONES.

TTORNEY AT LAW. Office in court house, Emporia, Kansas. T. N. SEDGWICK. TTORNEY AT LAW, Empor

L. B. & J. M. KELLOGG, A TTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS Law. Office at the court house, porta Kansas.

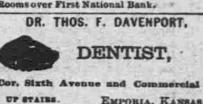

Physicians. DR. W. W. HIBBEN, OFFICE-Over Dunlap & Co's. Bank

T H. WILHITE, D. V. S.,

Graduate of American Veterinary College Veterinary Surgeon. Office is at veterinary barn, on Constitution streat All diseases of animals suggestfully treated.

J. H. WILHITE.

Dentistry. DR. S. E. NORTHINGTON, DENTAL SURGEON. Office eyer On Hall clothing store, Emporia. J. A. YOUNG. Emporia, Kansas

Miscellaneous. J. J. EVANS. OTARY PUBLIC, and Real Estate, Loan D. C. GRINNELL, J. P.,

MERICUS, KANSAS. Real Estate an Collection Agent. Office third door, ea-Broadway and Maine. Correspondence CHITECT AND SUPERINTENDENT

Real Estate. Lean & Collecting Agent. J. H. HIBBEN,

CIVIL ENGINEER AND COUNTY SUR-VEYOR -Office over Agnes City Grocery. C. P. THEIS, Boot and Shoe Maker.

EMPORIA. KANSAS. Shops and Factories CITEAR POWER

WOOD WORKING FACTORY Plans and specifications for all kinds of buildings furnished, and low figures gives on all contracts.

Pastory and shop on Commercial Street just north of Seventh Avenue, Emperis.

Give me a call.

E. F. SPRAGUE.

of T. L. RYAN. Manufactures of all kinds of CARRIAGES.
SPRING WAGONS, PLATFORM
WORK, ETC. SYC.
REPAIRING BONE ON SHORT MOTICE! Sixth avenue east of Commercial St.

oundry and Machine Shor

REAL ESTATE PRAIRIE LAND. eps FOF HOUSES, FARMS BUILDING LOTS, Inquire of M. W. STRATTON, Reading, Lyon County, E-